This beautifully presented, ground floor apartment is an ideal purchase for those requiring single storey living and makes a great alternative to a bungalow. Having undergone a programme of refurbishment over recent years to include replacement of the original kitchen and bathroom fittings, quality flooring throughout and replacement of the original central heating boiler. Being tucked away at the head of this quiet cul-de-sac and having allocated off road parking space together with visitor parking. Ideally placed for amenities with Asda being just down the road. The accommodation is surprisingly spacious with entrance hall, utility room, lounge diner, separate kitchen, 2 double bedrooms and shower room. internal viewing a must to fully appreciate.
