Tucked away in a beautiful and peaceful hamlet, just 1 mile from the delightful community of Greystoke and a 6 mile drive from Penrith, Cottesloe has been transformed by the current owner to create exceptional, chic living space, combined with ultra high efficiency and allowing accessible accommodation suitable for those with mobility needs, without compromise to style and design.

With over 1,700 Sq. ft (157 Sq. m) of floor space, including an open plan living room/dining room/kitchen which alone is almost the size of a standard 3 bedroom house, four double bedrooms, two en-suite shower rooms and a house shower room, the bungalow allows comfort and flexibility for families, large or small.

Being set in about a third of an acre of immaculate garden, Cottesloe enjoys a tranquil location with a good degree of privacy, combined with a high level of direct sunlight throughout the day from the large stone terrace by the living room to the sheltered courtyard and the gorgeous stone built firepit.

There are several stand out features to Cottesloe, one of them being the exceptionally high level of energy efficiency, with underfloor heating throughout, photovoltaic solar panels and battery storage, this magnificent home gives an almost unheard of EPC rating of A

In summary, this detached bungalow in Greystoke is a wonderful family home, offering generous living space, modern conveniences, and a prime location. It is a property that truly deserves your attention.

Outside

Cottesloe is set in approximately a third of an acre of impeccably maintained gardens which are also fully accessible to wheelchair and mobility aid users as well as offering a good degree of privacy and a high level of direct sunlight.

A drive from the roadside leads up to a large parking and turning area, suitable for several cars and having an EV charging point.

Two gates from the parking area open to the main garden and a broad stone flagged path with an attractive garden to the side laid to lawn and interspersed with a variety of shrubs and flowering plants, leads from the parking area to the front door and continues across the front of the bungalow to a gate leading to the side.

The main garden is on the south east side of the bungalow with a large stone flagged patio, accessed from the living room, with a lawn garden around interspersed with shrubs and having a step free stone flagged path with hidden lighting, leading to an attractive circular fire pit with stone seating around.

The shrub and hedge borders create a wonderful wildlife Haven, attracting many animals including red squirrels, and also gives a high degree of privacy.

A large stone flagged courtyard to the rear of the bungalow also has a garden shed with light and power point.

To the side of the bungalow there is the Vaillant air source heat pump which provides the central heating and hot water also supplemented from the solar panels with the battery storage packs.
