In the scenic postcard setting of Matterdale, within the beautiful Lake District National Park, Goosegreen is a true "one off".

Built in the style of a Classic Country Residence, using modern cavity wall construction combined with a wealth of reclaimed and original materials, Goosegreen creates a magnificent period atmosphere, but ready for 21st century family life. The accommodation, in excess of 2,000 sq ft, comprises; Entrance Hall, Living Room, sitting Room, Study, Farmhouse Kitchen, Utility Room, Pantry, WC, Landing, 5 Bedrooms, an En-Suite (requires completing) a House Bathroom and three useful Attic Rooms with excellent potential.

The house is set in a total of approximately 2.2 acres, including a south facing lawned garden with a superb view across the surrounding countryside to the Lakeland fells, a fabulous Potager Garden with a Stream, a Fruit Garden, a Greenhouse, a Stone Outbuilding and an area of natural native woodland.

Within the grounds is also a large Stone Barn and Adjoining Outbuilding with around 2,300 sq ft, with fantastic potential for development, subject to planning permission.

This unique project has been a genuine labour of love and a wonderful family home for over forty years. Once the next owners have completed the work and carried out some cosmetic updates, this will be a rewarding family home for generations.
