Description

The accommodation benefits from light well proportioned living space, to the ground floor a generous lounge with opening door leading to a large and attractive garden/family room with ample space for large furnishings and containing an entertaining island with stool sitting to one side and shelved storage behind. This room has a large selection of double glazed windows and opening double doors leading to the secluded rear garden. To the front of the house large single garage was converted to an additional living room by the previous occupants it currently provides a large dining and day room, a massively useful living space. Entrance door to front leads to a large hallway with stairs to the first floor and useful downstairs cloak always an asset to a family house. A modern contemporary fitted kitchen has picture window to the front aspect and an extensive selection of storage with extensive work surfaces and a selection of built-in appliances. To the first floor there are three well proportioned bedrooms each with a selection of storage and large picture windows, they are serviced by a family shower room with storage and a jack and gill door arrangement from the master bedroom and main landing, a flexible and pleasing arrangement. The accommodation is warmed throughout by a gas fired central heating system which is complemented by Upvc double glazed windows and doors and is presented in excellent condition by the present vendors.

Cirencester

Cirencester is an historic Roman town which became an important centre for the wool trade in medieval times. Today it is a thriving market town. The property occupies a desirable situation. Shopping in Cirencester is highly regarded, off the main streets there are many interesting back lanes with specialist shops, particularly Black Jack Street. On the outskirts of the town are two supermarkets (Waitrose and Tesco) as well as a Hospital. A new Leisure Centre was opened in 2006 and one of the oldest open-air pools in the country is a short walk. A gate to the 2500 acre Cirencester Park, belonging to the Bathurst family and open during the day, is also a short walk off Cecily Hill. Many concerts are given in the Church and there are talented local choirs and amateur dramatic groups. Within about half an hour's drive are the towns of Cheltenham, Gloucester and Swindon. Bath, Oxford and Stratford are about an hour by car, with superb cultural and recreational facilities. Private and State schools in the area are excellent, such as Beaudesert, Deer Park, Kingshill, Prior Park, Rendcomb and Hatherop Castle.

Kemble airfield has facilities for small aircraft and Aston Down is a gliding centre. Cirencester has had a golf course for over 100 years and others are at Minchinhampton, Burford and Naunton. Superb horse racing takes place at Cheltenham, as well as at meetings at Newbury and Bath. Sailing is available on the lakes between Cirencester and Swindon.

Amenities

Corinium Gate is a much sought-after location due to its proximity to the town centre which is within walking distance. Cirencester is deservedly known as the "Capital of the Cotswolds" and is extremely accessible, being at the intersection of the Fosse Way and Ermin Way. The latter provides virtual dual carriage access to both the M4 at Swindon and the M5 at Gloucester/Cheltenham. There is a fast and regular Great Western Train service from Kemble (about 3.5 miles) to London Paddington which takes approximately 75 minutes with stops at Swindon, Didcot and Reading
