Poulton

Poulton is located between Cirencester and Fairford with fantastic access to glorious Gloucestershire countryside. The village benefits from a range of facilities including country public house and restaurant, village hall, selection of clubs and sporting organisations including a highly active Cricket Club. The nearby Gilbertine kitchen at Priory Court offers a lovely environment for breakfast or lunch in a fantastic setting. The village is well situated for the business commuter with the M4 and M5 motorways being within good driving distance and a commuter train service to London Paddington from Swindon, a daily commuter service. There are two highly rated primary schools each in neighbouring villages ideal for the growing family, secondary school is catered for in Cirencester or Fairford which both have highly rated schools.

Near by Cirencester

Cirencester is located approx. 5 miles to the west of Poulton it is an historic Roman town which became an important centre for the wool trade in medieval times. Today it is a thriving market town. The property occupies a desirable situation. Shopping in Cirencester is highly regarded, off the main streets there are many interesting back lanes with specialist shops, particularly Black Jack Street. On the outskirts of the town are two supermarkets (Waitrose and Tesco) as well as a Hospital. A new Leisure Centre was opened in 2006 and one of the oldest open-air pools in the country is a short walk. A gate to the 2500 acre Cirencester Park, belonging to the Bathurst family and open during the day, is also a short walk off Cecily Hill. Many concerts are given in the Church and there are talented local choirs and amateur dramatic groups. Within about half an hour's drive are the towns of Cheltenham, Gloucester and Swindon. Bath, Oxford and Stratford are about an hour by car, with superb cultural and recreational facilities. Private and State schools in the area are excellent, such as Beaudesert, Deer Park, Kingshill, Prior Park, Rendcomb and Hatherop Castle.

Kemble airfield has facilities for small aircraft and Aston

Down is a gliding centre. Cirencester has had a golf course for over 100 years and others are at Minchinhampton, Burford and Naunton. Superb horse racing takes place at Cheltenham, as well as at meetings at Newbury and Bath. Sailing is available on the lakes between Cirencester and Swindon.
