Situated in a most stunning location, this charming end of terrace period cottage has been beautifully renovated to a high standard. The property offers stylish and well-presented accommodation with a wealth of character features, including exposed beams, sash windows, and fireplaces. Dual aspect rooms create a light and airy feel throughout, while thoughtful updates blend seamlessly with the cottage's historic charm.

On the ground floor there is a bespoke kitchen, fully fitted with integrated appliances, a slate floor, and space for a table and chairs. A cloakroom adds convenience, and the sitting room is particularly inviting with its wood burning stove, brick fireplace, original shutters, and oak flooring, complemented by an oak staircase.

Upstairs, both bedrooms showcase plenty of natural light with original exposed beams in the master bedroom. A recently fitted bathroom completes the first floor.
