

A photograph of a two-story red brick house with a dark tiled roof. The house has multiple windows with wooden frames and two front doors, each with a small porch. A paved driveway leads to the front of the house, and a garden with a wooden fence and various plants is visible on the left. The sky is clear and blue.

Description

An ideal location for this stunning two double bedroom extended end of terraced house in this quiet cul de sac close to the local amenities..

There are well regarded primary and secondary schools within close proximity including St Joseph's Primary, St Thomas Aquinas Secondary School and the ever popular Kings Norton Boys and Girls secondary schools.

Local shops can be found in the neighbouring road and nearby Northfield and Kings Norton Green villages which both offer a selection of shops, supermarkets and hostellers.

Trains and buses offer regular services to the surrounding areas and Birmingham City Centre.

Just a short short drive away you will find the M42 motorway forming the hub of the midlands motorway network.

Set back from the road via an ample block paved driveway, a UPVC double glazed door opens into the porch with part glazed door into the hallway having stairs to the first floor accommodation and doors into the refitted kitchen and lounge with French doors to the rear garden.

On the first floor there are two double bedrooms and a refitted shower room.

The stunning landscaped rear garden has a paved patio leading to lawn with mature, flower, shrub and herbaceous borders, timber shed, green house, fencing to boundaries and rear coniferous screening.
