The main image shows a row of three terraced houses on Silver Street. The house in the center is painted a light pink color and has a red tiled roof with three dormer windows. It has a blue front door and a large window with white frames. To the left of the pink house is a brick house with a black front door and a small porch. To the right of the pink house is another brick house with a black front door. The houses are set back from the road by a grassy area with a stone path leading to each door. There are some plants and flowers in the front garden. The sky is blue with some white clouds.

MONEY LAUNDERING REGULATIONS: Under anti-money laundering legislation, we are obliged to confirm the identity of individuals and companies and the beneficial owners of organisations and trusts before accepting new instructions, and to review this from time to time. To avoid the need to request detailed identity information from vendors and intending purchasers, we may use approved external services which review publicly available information on companies and individuals. However, should those checks, for any reason, fail adequately to confirm identity, we may write to you to ask for identification evidence or information within a reasonable time, we may have to stop acting for you and we would ask for your co-operation in order that there will be no delay in agreeing a sale. Any purchaser who has a provisional offer accepted via this company will be liable to pay an administration fee of £25 (incl VAT) for each person connected with the transaction to cover these checks. If we are instructed by a third party selling agent they may carry out their own AML checks and any prospective purchaser will be required to pay any additional costs involved – please speak to the office for confirmation.

REFERRAL FEES: We may refer you to recommended providers of ancillary services such as Conveyancing, Financial Services and Surveying. We may receive a commission payment fee or other benefit (known as a referral fee) for recommending their services. You are not under any obligation to use the services of the recommended provider.
