A word from the owner:

We've absolutely loved living in our first home in Birmingham. It's a quiet cul-de-sac where you can hear nothing but birdsong and occasionally spot a fox late at night.

We genuinely couldn't ask for better neighbours on both sides - it really does feel like winning the lottery!

The garden gets plenty of light throughout the day and is especially enjoyable in the summer, perfect for BBQs.

The bedrooms are very spacious and benefit from lots of natural light. The bathtub is larger than standard, which makes a real difference when relaxing after a long day. The living room is also generously sized, making it ideal for hosting friends and dinner gatherings.

Lea Hall station is only a few minutes away, making it easy to travel to Birmingham International or into town via Birmingham New Street.
