The image shows a large, multi-story red brick apartment building with a Tudor-style architectural influence. The building features prominent black timber framing around the windows and roofline. The ground floor has a small white portico over the entrance. The building is set on a street with a paved sidewalk and some greenery in the foreground. A red car is partially visible on the left side of the image.

50% Shared Ownership £75,000

Description

Making an ideal first purchase and being sold as 100% or on a shared ownership basis with Citizen Housing Association, this well presented ground floor apartment is ideally located to take advantages of the facilities offered by the centre of Shirley and indeed the town centre of Solihull which is some 3 miles away.

Shared ownership schemes facilitate the affordability of more desirable locations for buyers looking to take their first step onto the property ladder. This property is also available on a 50% share basis and the remaining 50% has a rent which is currently around £358 per calendar month (awaiting confirmation from the housing association). This monthly charge includes the ground rent, service charge and building insurance.

Originally built by Taylor Wimpey, this first floor apartment has an allocated parking space and is being sold with no upward chain.

Sitting back from the roadside, a front door with security intercom phone, opens to the communal hallway. Situated on the first floor is a door opening to the well presented apartment.
