The image shows the front facade of a semi-detached house. The house has a dark brown tiled roof and a brick exterior. The ground floor features a white front door with a semi-circular window and a small number '25' on the left. To the right of the door is a white conservatory with a gabled roof and large glass panels. Further right is a white bay window with multiple panes. The upper floor has several white-framed windows, some with lace curtains. A black downspout is visible on the right side of the house. The house is set on a concrete path leading to a green lawn.

Wakelin Road

Shirley

Offers Over £325,000

Description

Wakelin Road is a small cul-de-sac within 'The Woodlands' development located on the fringes of Shirley and benefitting from being in close proximity to open countryside.

The property falls within the catchment area for Light Hall Secondary School which can be found in nearby Stretton Road, with infant schooling being at Woodlands Infant School and junior schooling at Shirley Heath. Also nearby, on the main Stratford Road, you will find Our Lady of the Wayside Roman Catholic Junior and Infant School and in Solihull on Whitefields Road is St Peter's Roman Catholic Senior School, although all education facilities are subject to confirmation from the Education Department.

The main shopping centre in Shirley offers a wide choice of Supermarkets, convenience and speciality stores, restaurants and hostelrys and there are frequent bus services running along the A34 into Birmingham City Centre and Solihull Town Centre – boasting the vibrant and modern Touchwood Centre offering shopping facilities and evening entertainments. Shirley has its own train station in Haslucks Green Road, providing a train service to Birmingham City Centre and Stratford upon Avon.

An ideal location therefore for this modern town house that has been extended and improved to a high standard by the current owners and offers really deceptive accommodation that really needs to be seen to be appreciated and boasts a beautiful extended kitchen with lantern roof and bi-fold doors to the rear garden; a utility and ground floor shower room; three double bedrooms and a bathroom. There is a pretty garden to the rear with gated rear access and an excellent garden room. Overall we would definitely recommend viewing to appreciate the accommodation on offer and the overall presentation of the house.
