Paley Drive

Dickens Heath

Offers Around £475,000

Description

Dickens Heath can be found approximately two miles from Shirley town centre and four miles from Solihull town centre. The former farmland has been developed over the last two decades by a number of house builders to provide a modern residential development centred around a High Street and village green.

Paley Drive is situated on the fringe of the village and benefits from the close proximity of open countryside and the canal, where canal side walks will take you through to Birmingham Centre and Earlswood Lakes. The village itself boasts its own junior and infant school, and secondary education can be found at nearby Solihull secondary schools, including Light Hall and Alderbrook. Education facilities are subject to confirmation from the local Education Department.

The main shopping centre of nearby Shirley offers a wide choice of supermarkets, convenience and speciality stores, restaurants and hostelries, and there are frequent bus services along the A34 into Birmingham city centre and Solihull town centre boasting the vibrant and modern Touchwood Development offering shopping facilities and evening entertainment.

Shirley has its own train station in Haslucks Green Road, providing a service to Birmingham city centre and Stratford-upon-Avon and also close to the village is Whitlocks End Railway Station which also provides a service to these destinations.

Off the main Stratford Road leads Marshall Lake Road boasting the Retail Park, and further down the A34 one will find the Cranmore, Widney, Monkspath and Solihull Business and leisure park, and onto the Blythe Valley Business Park, which can be found at the junction with the M42 motorway, providing access to the midland motorway network. A short drive down the M42 to junction 6 will find National Exhibition Centre and Birmingham International Airport and Railway Station.

This development was originally constructed by David Wilson Homes and is situated within this pleasant cul-de-sac with a small green area to the fore providing a feeling of open space in the surround which presents an ideal location therefore for this well presented home that has the added benefit of an extended family room which provision valuable extra living space, a side garage and driveway and a pleasant landscaped garden to the rear. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the accommodation on offer and the position of this charming home.

MONEY LAUNDERING REGULATIONS: Under anti-money laundering legislation, we are obliged to confirm the identity of individuals and companies and the beneficial owners of organisations and trusts before accepting new instructions, and to review this from time to time. To avoid the need to request detailed identity information from vendors and intending purchasers, we may use approved external services which review publicly available information on companies and individuals. However, should those checks, for any reason, fail adequately to confirm identity, we may write to you to ask for identification evidence. If you do not provide satisfactory evidence or information within a reasonable time, we may have to stop acting for you and we would ask for your co-operation in order that there will be no delay in agreeing a sale. Any purchaser who has a provisional offer accepted via this company will be liable to pay an administration fee of £25 (incl VAT) for each person connected with the transaction to cover these checks. If we are instructed by a third party selling agent they may carry out their own AML checks and any prospective purchaser will be required to pay any additional costs involved – please speak to the office for confirmation.

REFERRAL FEES: We may refer you to recommended providers of ancillary services such as Conveyancing, Financial Services and Surveying. We may receive a commission payment fee or other benefit (known as a referral fee) for recommending their services. You are not under any obligation to use the services of the recommended provider.
