

An aerial photograph of a large, multi-story brick building with a dark roof and many windows. The building is situated next to a canal with two narrowboats. To the right of the building is a parking lot with several cars and a green bin. In the background, there are other buildings, a cemetery with many headstones, and a residential area with houses and trees.

Description

This superb top floor apartment is situated in this grade two listed former mill building which was converted within the last 5 years to a really high specification; and offers beautifully presented accommodation which requires immediate internal inspection to be appreciated.

Located within the district of Fazeley; which is situated betwixt Lichfield and Tamworth. The original settlement was developed alongside the Birmingham and Fazeley Canal and this development features the grade two listed Mill Building which was erected in the late 1800's as Textile Mill for William Tolson Limited. The building was listed in 1997 and painstakingly restored and converted into residential accommodation within the last decade.

Fazeley is conveniently situated between junctions 9 and 10 of the M42 providing excellent motorway access. There are train stations at Tamworth for National Rail links and nearby the station of Wilnecote provides access to the local train network. Bus services run through the town to Tamworth town centre, Lichfield and beyond. Within the town is a convenience store, pubs and a number of take away restaurants which are literally within a five minute walk from the property.

The town centre of Tamworth is within a few miles and on the outskirts is the greatly convenient Ventura Park which is home to a retail park, a cinema and a selection of entertainment venues, restaurants and bars.

An ideal location therefore for this beautifully presented top floor apartment that is filled with natural light from the high original sash style windows which enjoy far reaching views. The property is finished to a high standard including good quality contemporary fittings and has been decorated in a style to compliment the character of the building; enhancing the high ceilings and the feature exposed detailed brickwork. The property boasts a modern infra red heating system, engineered oak flooring in the kitchen, remote control motorised blinds and 3M window film coverings.

The property is located at the end of the corridor on the top floor giving an excellent degree of privacy and is accessed from the secure communal entrance from where a lift rises to all floors.

MONEY LAUNDERING REGULATIONS: Under anti-money laundering legislation, we are obliged to confirm the identity of individuals and companies and the beneficial owners of organisations and trusts before accepting new instructions, and to review this from time to time. To avoid the need to request detailed identity information from vendors and intending purchasers, we may use approved external services which review publicly available information on companies and individuals. However, should those checks, for any reason, fail adequately to confirm identity, we may write to you to ask for identification evidence. If you do not provide satisfactory evidence or information within a reasonable time, we may have to stop acting for you and we would ask for your co-operation in order that there will be no delay in agreeing a sale. Any purchaser who has a provisional offer accepted via this company will be liable to pay an administration fee of £25 (incl VAT) for each person connected with the transaction to cover these checks. If we are instructed by a third party selling agent they may carry out their own AML checks and any prospective purchaser will be required to pay any additional costs involved – please speak to the office for confirmation.

REFERRAL FEES: We may refer you to recommended providers of ancillary services such as Conveyancing, Financial Services and Surveying. We may receive a commission payment fee or other benefit (known as a referral fee) for recommending their services. You are not under any obligation to use the services of the recommended provider.
