Description

This well maintained detached house was built in the early 2000's by Laing Homes to the 'Bromsgrove' design and is situated in the popular modern village of Dickens Heath and is located on the fringe of the development in the lower density surrounded in the main by similar detached family homes.

The whole development benefits from the close proximity of open countryside and the canal, where canal side walks will take you through to Birmingham Centre and Earlswood Lakes. The village boasts its own junior and infant school; with secondary education can be found at nearby Solihull secondary schools, including Light Hall and Alderbrook. Education facilities are subject to confirmation from the local Education Department.

The main shopping centre of nearby Shirley offers a wide choice of supermarkets, convenience and speciality stores, restaurants and hosteleries, and there are frequent bus services along the A34 into Birmingham city centre and Solihull town centre boasting the vibrant and modern Touchwood Development offering shopping facilities and evening entertainment.

Shirley has its own train station in Haslucks Green Road, providing a service to Birmingham city centre and Stratford-upon-Avon, and also close to the village is Whitlocks End Railway Station which also provides a service to these destinations.

Off the main Stratford Road leads Marshall Lake Road boasting the Retail Park, and further down the A34 one will find the Cranmore, Widney, Monkspath and Solihull Business and leisure park, and onto the Blythe Valley Business Park, which can be found at the junction with the M42 motorway, providing access to the midland motorway network. A short drive down the M42 to junction 6 will find National Exhibition Centre and Birmingham International Airport and Railway Station.

The property has been in the same ownership since it's original construction and has been lovingly maintained. Enjoying a wide corner plot which offers a good degree of privacy, there is a side attached double width garage and block paved driveway and a front garden. There is a central reception hallway with guest cloaks WC, a refitted dining kitchen with utility room off, a dual aspect lounge and a separate dining room. Upstairs there are four well proportioned bedrooms, a refitted en suite shower room and a family bathroom. Overall viewing is essential to appreciate the quality of the presentation and the space offered by this terrific family home.
