Occupying a prime riverside position within the historic Old Mill setting, Otter Cottage is a charming three-bedroom cottage offering freehold ownership and an exceptional outlook over the main river and open water meadows beyond.

Arranged over three storeys, the cottage provides well-balanced accommodation ideally suited to both full-time residential use and those seeking a character home in a unique waterside environment. The property enjoys a strong sense of privacy and individuality, enhanced by its position.

A particular highlight is the private rear garden, which directly adjoins the tributary and provides a peaceful outdoor space from which to enjoy the surrounding natural beauty. The setting offers far-reaching views across fields and water meadows, creating a constantly changing backdrop throughout the seasons.

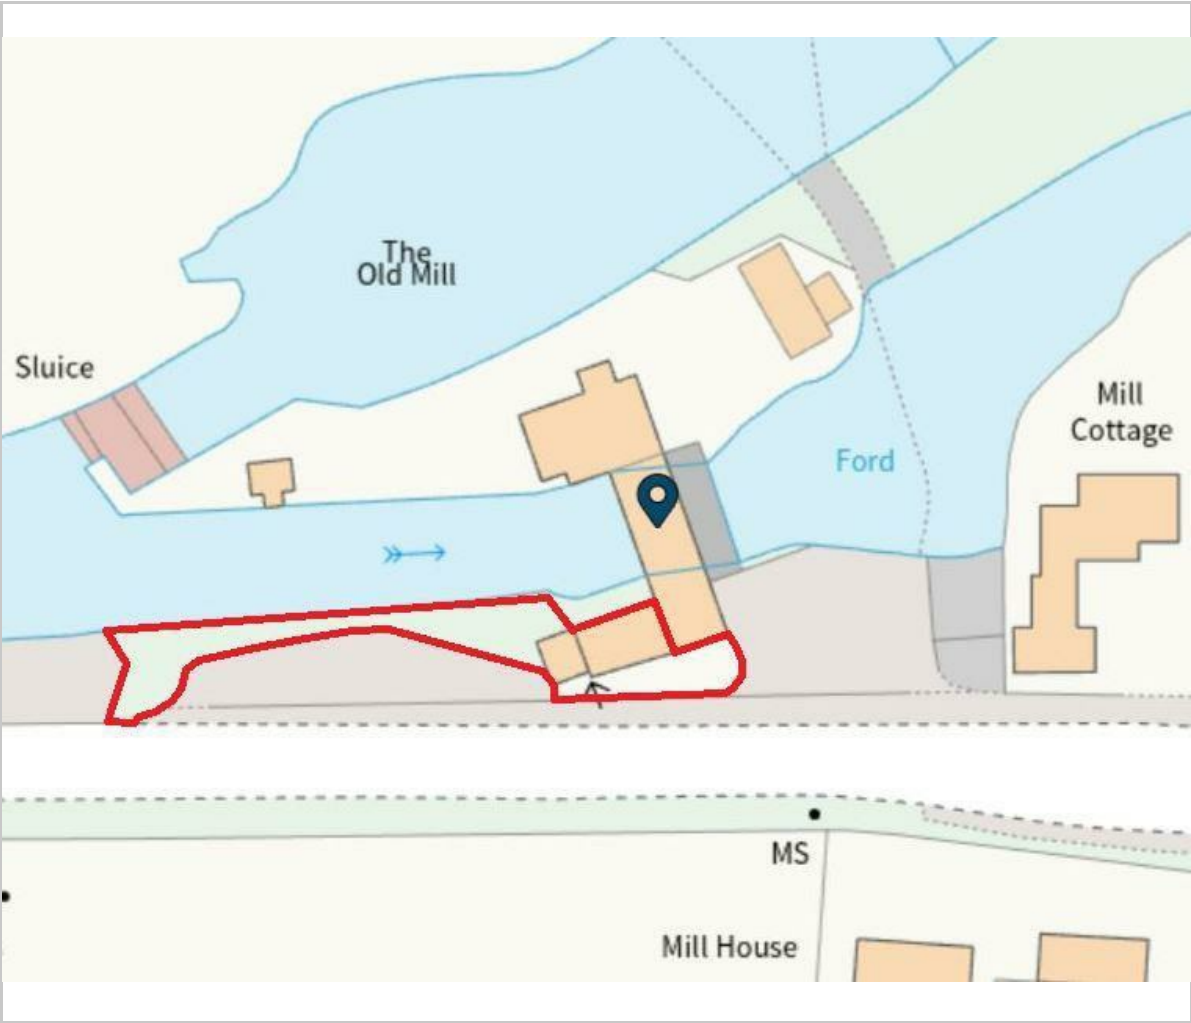

Otter Cottage benefits from two allocated parking spaces, a rare and valuable feature for a property of this nature. While forming part of the wider Old Mill development, the cottage enjoys its own distinct identity and is offered freehold, providing long-term security and independence.

Set in the popular village of Corfe Mullen, with easy access to Wimborne and the surrounding countryside, Otter Cottage presents a rare opportunity to acquire a characterful riverside home combining historic charm, modern practicality and an outstanding natural setting.
