

The Fraser Princess Way, Worksop S80 4UP

Asking price £349,995

PLOT 8

The Fraser is a beautifully designed three-storey home, perfect for modern family living. As you enter, a spacious living room welcomes you to the left, while at the end of the hallway, a generous kitchen and dining area opens up—complete with French doors leading out to your private garden.

Upstairs, the first floor features three well-proportioned bedrooms that share a stylish family bathroom. The top floor, however, is where The Fraser truly shines. The entire second storey is dedicated to the luxurious Bedroom 1, featuring its own en suite, a dressing area, and a fitted wardrobe—your very own private retreat.

Hodthorpe is a small, picturesque village located in Derbyshire, England, near the border with Nottinghamshire. Nestled between the historic town of Whitwell and the scenic landscapes of Creswell Crags, Hodthorpe is known for its quiet charm and close-knit community. Originally developed as a mining village in the late 19th century, it has retained much of its character while evolving into a peaceful residential area. The village benefits from easy access to natural attractions and walking trails, making it a pleasant spot for nature lovers and those seeking a rural lifestyle. Its rich industrial history and proximity to cultural landmarks add depth to its appeal, offering a blend of heritage and countryside tranquillity.
