Kendall Harper

A well presented three bedroom Victorian terraced family home, situated on this popular road in Horfield and close to the ever popular Gloucester Road.

On the ground floor the accommodation comprises an entrance hall, a living room with bay window, a large kitchen/diner with a modern fitted kitchen complete with appliances and a conservatory that could be used as a sunny home working space.

On the first floor there are two good sized double bedrooms, one single bedroom and a modern fully tiled bathroom with bath and separate shower cubicle.

Outside there is a well maintained private South facing garden. This house would suit a family or a professional couple and viewings are highly recommended.
