IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Entering your second floor apartment your vast, 215 square foot, open plan kitchen, lounge and diner is first off the entrance hall. At one end, luminous, floor to ceiling patio doors lead onto your private, fully decked, South facing balcony. Splendid rooftop views. At the opposite end another broad, bright window illuminates the kitchen area, decked out in pale grey cabinets and smoky grey worktops with a sleek integrated oven and extractor hood with a brushed stainless steel splashback.

Immaculate, blonde, engineered hardwood flooring in your living room gives way to dark, velvety carpet in your handsome double bedroom. In here, walls are finished in shades of grey, and there's a floor to ceiling bank of mirrored, fitted wardrobes. Head back out in the hallway again, for your generously proportioned bathroom, home to a refreshing stroll in shower.

Mare Street is the heart of Hackney's renowned nightlife. A three minute walk brings you to the top, where you'll find an eclectic programme of community and larger scale productions at the Hackney Empire Theatre and two buzzing live music venues, Moth Club and Two Palms. A little further down Mare Street you can dine on the best wood fired pizzas at Burnt Mill or discover delicious, authentic, Vietnamese cuisine at Green Papaya restaurant. For relaxed cafe culture and freshly baked goods to take away, Pophams is only a four minute walk and serves wonderful, Scandinavian inspired, pastries and sweet treats.

WHAT ELSE?

- You can refresh yourself with an outdoor swim all year round, at London Fields Lido. A heated, Olympic size, outdoor pool that's only an eight minute walk from your new home.
- A four minute walk brings you to lush, open, London Fields itself, where you'll find tennis and basketball courts and the welcoming Pub On The Park.
- It's only seven minutes on foot to Hackney Central station, where Mildmay line Overground trains run to Stratford in eight minutes and Camden Road in twelve. From Stratford you can also connect with Central and Elizabeth line services.
