IF YOU LIVED HERE...

A notably spacious entrance hall introduces the home with quiet confidence, softly textured walls and leaded glazing at the front door drawing daylight inside and creating an immediate sense of flow. Nearby, the reception room is warm and well balanced, finished in a gentle two-tone palette, with a generous window inviting in natural light and a fireplace with log burner bringing texture and definition to this relaxed yet refined setting.

To the rear, the kitchen and dining space unfolds with impact and ease. A substantial central island anchors the room, framed by soft sage cabinetry and muted clay-toned units that lend warmth and individuality. Pale worktops and light timber flooring balance the scheme beautifully, while a generous skylight and wide bi-fold doors strengthen the connection to the terrace beyond. Designed for both entertaining and daily life, it is a space with real presence.

The garden extends seamlessly from a broad paved terrace, perfectly suited to long outdoor lunches and evening gatherings, before giving way to a sweep of lawn edged with established planting that brings softness and seasonal colour. A secure garden outbuilding provides a dedicated utility space, with plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer alongside automatic lighting.

Upstairs, natural timber stairs rise to the landing and three thoughtfully finished bedrooms, each with its own distinct character, served by a terrazzo clad bathroom where patterned surfaces, a muted green vanity and a bath with overhead shower create a cohesive, design-led feel.

The loft level provides an impressive principal suite, enhanced by a large skylight and wide picture window that frame open views. Bespoke fitted storage integrates seamlessly, while the ensuite continues the refined aesthetic, completing a home that balances personality with considered detail throughout.

The area combines generous green space with a confident mix of independent venues and cultural destinations. Café RODI draws a loyal following for its thoughtful brunch plates and speciality coffee, while CRATE St James Street offers street food, drinks and regular events in a lively warehouse setting. Big Penny Social, part of the Walthamstow Beer Mile, delivers beer hall scale and a varied programme of live events, and Soho Theatre is recognised for its established programme of comedy and new writing. St James Park offers open lawns, mature trees and a children's play area, while Walthamstow Wetlands provides expansive reservoir walks and wide-reaching waterside views. Families are well served by a strong selection of schools, including Stoneydown Park Primary School just three minutes away, the highly sought-after Little Diamonds nursery only 50 metres from the door, and excellent secondary schools all close by.

A WORD FROM THE OWNERS...

"We have loved living at Chewton Road and the rhythm of life the house gives you. One of the most uplifting moments of the day is waking in the loft bedroom, where the dual-aspect windows frame huge views of the sky to the front and rear. The light fills the space and gently welcomes the day. Using the ensuite and coming downstairs to start the morning with the kids always feels effortless – the kitchen's underfloor heating means warm toes in winter, while the house stays cool and well-oriented through the summer months. The boiling tap makes it easy to brew a quick cup of tea while everyone wakes up and gets organised. The morning routine is wonderfully simple. Little Diamonds nursery is just 50 metres away and Stoneydown Park Primary School is right at the top of the road, so the school run takes minutes. Within ten minutes we can be back home again, ready to begin the workday – it's an ease of living that's surprisingly rare in London. Evenings and weekends are just as special. We love meeting friends locally, relaxing in nearby green spaces like St James's Park, grabbing coffee from Curious Goat, or exploring the brilliant food and drink around the area including the nearby Beer Mile. With the Victoria line close by, it's incredibly easy to head into central London for dinner, theatre or an evening in Soho, and be back home again in no time. For us, this house has been the perfect place to enjoy the very best of London – combining city energy with the comfort and calm of a welcoming neighbourhood."
