IF YOU LIVED HERE...

That classically handsome brick frontage will make an impressive first impression as you arrive outside. Walk up the path and your welcoming hallway opens directly onto the bright, spacious through lounge. In here you have an artfully divided 280 square foot sociable space, with blonde herringbone hardwood underfoot, twin blank hearths and natural light flowing in from front and back.

To the rear, your kitchen's another flawless affair, with banks of striking Hague blue cabinets, finished with brass fixtures and sat below solid white worktops and metro tiled splashbacks. There's even a large Dublin sink with copper fittings. Your garden's accessed from here, and it's every bit as elegantly composed as the interior. A lush, manicured lawn sits between a large patio and raised timber deck to the rear. There's even a handy shed.

Upstairs and your principal bedroom is a substantial, 140 square foot double, finished in forest green up to the dado rail, with vintage floorboards underfoot and bistro shutters on the windows. Bedroom two's another double, in pristine white, while the first of your two bathrooms is striking in floor to ceiling metro tilework, with a clawfoot tub and rainfall shower cubicle. Upstairs you've a skylit sleeper to the front complete with gleaming en suite shower room. Bedroom four to the rear completes things in style.

Outside and St James Street station is less than half a mile on foot, with direct twenty minute runs to Liverpool Street putting the City less than half an hour away door to door. Next door to the station you'll find CRATE St James, a bustling social and cultural hub home to a huge range of independent businesses from burger bars to yoga studios. You're also at the bottom of our famous High Street here, for Europe's longest street market.

WHAT ELSE?

- Heading to the West End? Blackhorse Road tube is just fifteen minutes' walk (or five by bike) for direct twenty minute runs to Oxford Circus via the Victoria line.
- Parents will be pleased to find no fewer than fourteen primary and secondary schools, all rated 'Outstanding' or 'Good' by Ofsted and all less than a mile on foot. The 'Outstanding' St Saviour's primary is just ten minutes' stroll.
- St James Park is great to have on your doorstep, but if you really want to lose yourself in nature take the ten minute walk to our 500 acre Walthamstow Wetlands, London's largest nature reserve.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

I love living in Walthamstow – it's got such a great mix of things going on. Saturdays are my favourite, with the market in Lloyd Park full of fresh food, handmade bits, and plenty of friendly faces. The new Soho Theatre has brought amazing shows right to our doorstep, and if I fancy a pint, the Blackhorse Beer Mile breweries are perfect for a wander. When I need some fresh air, the Walthamstow Wetlands are just a short stroll away – all that greenery makes you completely forget you're in London. Plus, with brilliant transport links, it's so easy to hop on the Tube or Overground and be in Central London in no time at all.
