This striking building combines imposing elegance with cutting edge industrial chic. The restrained monochrome palette of the exterior, with its pale render and graphite grey warehouse windows, is carried inside the building, where the welcoming foyer has a lift that will whisk you to your apartment.

This first floor studio has a huge, over 30 ft long, living space with large Crittall-style windows which flooded the whole space with north light - loved by artists for its day-long consistency. The kitchen sits neatly along one wall, with high-quality German Sachsen Kuchen fitted cabinets discreetly housing a comprehensive range of integrated appliances. Stylish Carrera worktops, upstands and splashbacks complete the look.

There's plenty of space in open plan living room to create zones for work, sleep, and play. The regular rectangular layout is a flexible format easily adopted to suit your style and requirements.
