➡ IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You'd love everything about your new 1 bed apartment, from its modern design and contemporary décor to its convenient location. This is London living at its best; a new home in an exciting new micro-community with everything you need within easy walking distance.

This striking building combines imposing elegance with cutting edge industrial chic. The restrained monochrome palette of the exterior, with its pale render and graphite grey warehouse windows, is carried inside the building, where the welcoming foyer has a lift that will whisk you to your apartment.

This 2nd floor flat has a lovely living space with large Crittall-style windows which flooded the whole space with north light - The kitchen sits neatly along one wall, with high-quality German Sachsen Kuchen fitted cabinets discreetly housing a comprehensive range of integrated appliances. Stylish Carrera worktops, upstands and splashbacks complete the look.

There's plenty of space in open plan living room to create zones for work, sleep, and play. The luxurious hotel-style bathroom has large format porcelain wall and floor tiles and a contemporary bath with an overhead shower, washbasin, and WC.
