The bedroom is a comfortable and calm retreat, while the overall home feels carefully considered and easy to maintain. Residents also have access to a rooftop communal terrace, along with the added ease of a gym and concierge, bringing a quiet sense of convenience to everyday life.

WHAT ELSE?

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"Capitol Court has been a great home to me. The flat is a great size — big enough to have friends over with a proper living room for hosting, but also works perfectly as a place just for me. The 'winter garden' doubles up nicely as a home office, and with the entire outer wall being windows, you get an unreal amount of natural light throughout the day. The Fish Island Village amenities are a real bonus: a gym on your doorstep, a communal roof garden, a friendly concierge to handle parcels, and some brilliant independent shops plus a bakery literally seconds away. Hackney Wick is hands-down one of the best spots in London too. Great pubs, bars, and restaurants all within walking distance, Victoria Park right round the corner, with plenty of other amenities minutes away by bike. Less than 10 mins to Hackney Wick overground, and if the weather is on your side, 20 mins to walk to Westfield, Stratford, I can't forget mentioning the cracking views from both the living room and winter garden. It's a hard place to leave."
