IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Step inside and the character of the building makes itself known straight away. The Strand Building has a wonderfully atmospheric shared lobby and a striking pink stairwell that nods to its 1920s roots, while original architectural details have been thoughtfully retained throughout. Inside the flat, the renovation has been carefully handled to reflect the era and aesthetic of the building, creating a home that feels cohesive, stylish and easy to settle into.

The open-plan kitchen and living space is particularly impressive, with floor to ceiling windows drawing in plenty of light and adding to the sense of openness. Walnut units rise to the full height of the room, paired with quartz worktops and a bar that works well for both everyday use and entertaining. Above, a custom-made brass rack provides useful hanging storage, while details such as integrated plug sockets, Smeg appliances, alabaster stone wall lights and Italian porcelain floor tiles all add to the considered finish.

Double doors open into the principal bedroom, where original wall sconces and wood parquet flooring bring warmth, while a Juliet balcony softens the room with natural light. The tall fitted wardrobes and custom ladder rail make smart use of the height. The second bedroom is equally well judged, with floor to ceiling windows and a real wood half wall giving it flexibility as a double bedroom, study or a combination of both. In the bathroom, brass fittings, onyx-style tiles, walnut shelving, a marble sink and glass bricks combine to create a finish that feels polished but still in keeping with the wider design of the home.

Set on the second floor, the home has a calm, tucked-away feel, and the combination of careful renovation and original architectural character gives it a distinctive atmosphere. With underground parking, access to a communal garden and the rare appeal of the Strand Building itself, this is a home with real personality as well as practicality.

What else?

Sons is close by for coffee, while The Chesham Arms, 107 Wine Bar, Lucky & Joy, Yard Sale Pizza and Mambow are all nearby for easy evenings and weekend plans.

Chatsworth Road, London Fields, Hackney Downs Park and Millfields Park are all within walking distance, along with Hackney Picturehouse and the Castle Cinema.

Hackney Central Overground is under ten minutes away on foot, with Hackney Downs a little further on, and there are various bus routes stopping directly outside the building.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"We've lived in the property for nearly 8 years and had the most amazing time here. It's in the heart of Lower Clapton so you're spoiled for choice with restaurants, bars, pubs etc on your doorstep but at the same time it feels really quiet and safe as it's a gated building set back from the main road with its own private courtyard and car park. When we first viewed the property we fell in love with the architecture and epic lobby; it felt like stepping back into 1920s Miami and just unlike anything we'd seen before in the UK. We wanted to bring this heritage through into the flat and so before renovating we did extensive research into art deco aesthetics to ensure the design details and materials were all authentic to that era. Outside of the immediate area, you're able to access so many other destination spots like London Fields, Chatsworth Road, Hackney Downs, Victoria Park and Kingsland Road, all within a 10-20min walk. We're going to be really sad to leave here, but hope someone else gets to enjoy it the way we have!"
