IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Set on the third floor, this thoughtfully arranged home has a bright, open feel throughout. The reception room measures over fifteen feet in length and offers a generous place to relax or gather with friends. Large south facing windows draw in natural light across the day, giving the room a warm, easy atmosphere.

The kitchen sits just next to the living space and is neatly arranged with good worktop space and room for everyday cooking. Both bedrooms are well proportioned and also benefit from the same south facing aspect, making them calm and bright spaces to start and end the day. One stretches to almost thirteen feet in length, while the second offers flexibility as a guest room, workspace or study.

The bathroom sits conveniently off the hallway, alongside a separate WC, creating a practical layout that works well for both daily routines and visiting guests.

WHAT ELSE?

Hackney Central Station is just a short walk away, offering Overground connections across London as well as easy bus links into direct to Central London.

Broadway Market and London Fields are within walking distance, known for their weekend market, independent shops and much loved food spots including Elliot's and L'eau à La Bouche.

Victoria Park is nearby for wide green spaces, waterside walks and relaxed afternoons in one of East London's most cherished parks.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"I feel right at home living in Hackney, even though I am originally from Greece. You can be yourself, wear what you like and always feel welcome. The multicultural spirit shines through in the cafés, restaurants, shops and bars. From specialty coffee and Michelin star dining to parks and art galleries, Hackney has something for everyone. Weekends at Victoria Park or Broadway Market are full of community energy, great food and local makers. The marshes are ideal for dog walks, and nearby you can stop by the Princess of Wales for a Sunday roast, Here East for brunch or Crate Brewery for pizza and a local beer. Homes range from Victorian and Georgian houses to red brick local authority blocks and modern developments with shared roof terraces. I have truly found my place in Hackney, and it holds a special spot in my heart!"
