IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Stepping inside, the house has an easy, welcoming feel from the outset. The ground floor has a natural flow, with a generous through reception that easily accommodates both seating and dining areas. A bay window to the front brings in plenty of daylight, while the rear of the room opens neatly towards the garden, giving the whole space a bright and connected feel.

The kitchen sits just off the reception and is smartly fitted in a soft, neutral palette, with good worktop space and garden views adding to its practical appeal. There's also a ground floor WC, always useful in a family home, while the side access and private driveway make day-to-day living that bit easier. To the rear, the west facing garden is a lovely size, with a patio leading onto lawn and a shed at the far end. It feels wonderfully open, with the added benefit of backing onto allotments, so there's a real sense of privacy.

Upstairs, all three bedrooms are set off the landing alongside the family bathroom. The principal bedroom is a particularly generous double, with the other two offering flexible space for children, guests or working from home. Altogether, the layout is practical and well considered, with future potential to extend, subject to the usual consents.

WHAT ELSE?

Epping Forest is just moments away, bringing miles of woodland walks and open green space beautifully close to home. Both Chingford and Highams Park stations are also accessible from here, with access to the Victoria Line and direct routes to Liverpool Street, making journeys across London both quick and convenient.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"We've really enjoyed living in this wonderful house - it feels open, bright, and relaxing. The garden gets plenty of sun and is ideal for entertaining, and with the added privacy of backing onto allotments, it's peaceful and not overlooked. Whether in the house or the garden, it always feels very quiet. Having a private driveway with space for two cars has also been a big plus day to day.

The location is a real highlight. There's a great park just round the corner, the forest is so close to enjoy walking in and exploring, and Station Road offers a lovely selection of cafés, restaurants, pubs, and shops. Chingford Station is only a short walk away and from there you are quickly into Liverpool St or onto the Victoria Line, and being at the start of the line means you're almost guaranteed a seat."
