IF YOU LIVED HERE

Just moments from the open green spaces of Ainslie Wood – a protected stretch of woodland, this home strikes a rare balance between calm surroundings and everyday practicality. The house is approached via a neat private driveway and its garage itself runs almost the full length of the property, offering excellent storage. Step inside and you're greeted by a smartly finished hallway with an impressive amount of built-in storage. Two reception rooms lead off from here. The front room is full of character, with a bay window, original coving and a striking ceiling rose that nods to the home's Edwardian roots. The second reception room is bright and sociable, opening generously into the kitchen/diner. The kitchen has a confident, modern feel, with charcoal-tiled flooring, crisp white cabinetry and a breakfast bar that naturally draws people together. A wide outlook over the garden brings in plenty of light, while a walk-in pantry or utility room offers flexible additional space. A downstairs WC completes the ground floor. Bifold doors open onto the garden, creating an easy flow outdoors. A paved patio with built-in wooden seating provides a ready-made spot for entertaining, while raised beds, mature trees, and a lawn framed by natural timber fencing give the space a relaxed, established feel. Upstairs, the first floor offers two generous double bedrooms, each with its own character and built-in storage. A third single bedroom works equally well as a guest room, nursery or home office. The family bathroom is beautifully styled, combining glossy olive-toned tiles with clean white walls. A modern freestanding bath overlooks the garden, complemented by a separate shower. The converted loft forms a calm and inviting retreat. Skylights frame open sky views, while a wide rear window looks out over greenery below. Clever built-in storage and additional space tucked into the eaves make it easy to keep seasonal items neatly out of sight. The ensuite bathroom is finished with terracotta-toned tiles, terrazzo surfaces and black fittings, giving it a contemporary, well-considered feel.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"We have loved taking our time to turn this house into our cosy, safe space for our young family. We did the important stuff first (new boiler, new roof and windows, put in a drive way, rewired throughout and upgraded the radiators) then we changed the bathroom, renovated the garden and most recently adding the loft space, each project with family living in mind. We love having the playroom by the kitchen but the front room for space away from the toys etc. The drive fits two cars easily, garage wonderful storage and the garden is just lovely. The area is going through positive change with the local parks being improved and with lots on the doorsteps we are never short of things to do or people to hangout with. The strong sense of community makes this a wonderful place to live and it is with a heavy heart that we are moving on."
