IF YOU LIVED HERE

Just moments from the open green spaces of Ainslie Wood - a protected stretch of woodland, this 1930's home strikes a rare balance between calm surroundings and everyday practicality. The house is approached via a neat private driveway, making day-to-day life simple, whether that's unloading shopping or wrangling children and dogs.

Step inside and the potential is immediately apparent. While the home could benefit from some cosmetic updating, the underlying quality is undeniable. Two reception rooms branch off the generous hallway. The front room is full of character, with a large bay window, original coving, and a striking ceiling rose, reflecting the property's 20th-century roots. The second reception room is bright and sociable, flowing seamlessly into the kitchen/diner. Sliding doors open directly onto the garden, letting in abundant light and creating a natural indoor-outdoor connection. Outside, a decked area offers a ready-made spot for entertaining, while the lawn stretches an impressive 72 feet, soaking up sun throughout the day.

Back inside you'll find a conservatory overlooking the garden and downstairs bathroom complete with shower and a handy utility room that can be accessed from the driveway as well as internally - perfect for muddy bikes and boots.

Upstairs, the first floor features two generous double bedrooms, each with its own character and built-in storage. A third single bedroom offers versatility - perfect as a guest room, nursery, or home office. The family bathroom completes the practical layout, with clear potential to adapt the space as your needs change or your family grows.

WHAT ELSE?

Parents will be reassured to find several well-regarded schools within easy reach; Ainslie Wood Primary School is right on the doorstep, while Lime Academy Larkwood, Parkside Primary School and Chase Lane Primary School are all approximately half a mile from the property. For secondary education, South Chingford Foundation School is within easy walking distance (around 0.5 miles), with Highams Park School, AIM Academy North London and Trinity Catholic High School all accessible locally. Highams Park Overground station is the nearest station offering direct services into London Liverpool Street in around 23 minutes. Chingford station is also within reach for additional rail options. Regular bus routes run nearby along Ainslie Wood Road and Chingford Mount Road, providing straightforward connections across Chingford, Walthamstow and surrounding areas.

If you forget to pick something up for dinner, you're located just short stroll away from Chingford Mount Road, which hosts a large variety of shops, eateries and amenities.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"Around the corner from our E4 office are The Stag and Lantern and Vino Tap, known for their craft beers and natural wines. If you fancy a nice coffee pop into Biba & Wren Coffee Shop or pop over to Grace and Albert for anything gift or homeware related. My favourite local walk to where I live is through Epping Forest from Highams Park to Chingford Plains, ending at The Butlers Retreat. If you fancy a bike ride The Lea Valley is expansive and offers plenty of different routes in and out of London. The area is the perfect halfway house, offering all the benefits of London but with the green space and community feel of a countryside village! I also love the variety of different architecture on offer throughout E4".
