IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You'll be enjoying a pristine suite of elegantly appointed spaces, flooded with natural light. Step inside and smart blonde engineered hardwood flows underfoot in your hallway, running on into your huge, 300 square foot, open plan kitchen and reception to the rear. Banks of patio doors frame garden views, and your kitchen's home to a stylish complement of smoky grey cabinetry with integrated Smeg appliances. A handy spare cloakroom sits off the hallway, with our first bedroom just opposite. It's a sizeable double, similarly styled, with a sleek en suite shower room, tiled from top to toe in slate grey. Up the skylit staircase you have two more bedrooms, the principal sleeper to the rear featuring splendid vaulted windows. A flawless family bathroom completes things.

Outside and the bustling heart of Waltham Abbey is less than five minutes' drive, for bars, restaurants and all your day to day needs. Green Flag award winning Gunpowder Park is just five minutes' walk away, for acres upon acres of rolling greenery given over to wildlife, walking trails and marshes. Your new local is The Plough, a family friendly gastropub just a ten minute stroll away.

WHAT ELSE?

- Don't forget your completely private garden. A spotless sunken patio ascends to a smart stretch of lawn, surrounded by high timber fencing and backing onto nothing but open greenery. There's a BBQ-perfect brick patio at the back, as well as a gate for direct access.
- Drivers are just five minutes from the M25 and ten from the North Circular, while Central London itself is just thirty minutes on the train.
- Your new home comes with underfloor heating, keeping things cosy during the colder months, as well as a Hikvision security system. You've got plenty of extra storage here too, both under the eaves to the front and just off the upstairs landing, so everything can have its place.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"I have enjoyed living here; it is a very private, peaceful, and spacious home with plenty of natural light. We have a lovely group of neighbours, and there are many green spaces nearby for walking. Additionally, it is a short commute into London."
