IF YOU LIVED HERE...

A Victorian frontage of warm London brick is framed by crisp white detailing and bay windows, with a softly toned front door adding a contemporary note. Inside, the hallway immediately establishes the character of the house, with wood flooring drawing you in and a staircase rising neatly, creating a gentle sense of progression through the home. The reception room sits comfortably to the front, centred around the bay window where shutters filter the daylight, and with a door that opens directly onto the garden, forming a natural link beyond. To the rear, the kitchen and dining room unfolds with an easy, sociable feel. Clean-lined cabinetry and simple tiled finishes keep the look understated, while painted timber flooring adds warmth and character. Bi-folding doors open the room fully to the garden, making it a natural setting for meals that drift outdoors.

The south-facing garden continues this flow, beginning with a paved terrace before stretching out into lawn edged with established planting, offering a private and inviting backdrop through the seasons.

Upstairs, the first-floor bedrooms are connected by a landing, with timber flooring running seamlessly throughout to create a sense of continuity. The front bedroom enjoys the bay window and built-in wardrobes, while the rear bedroom is equally comfortable and versatile in its proportions. The bathroom is finished with crisp square tiling, a bath with an overhead rain shower and a generous window, with dark-toned floor tiles adding contrast and a quietly considered feel. A separate WC sits nearby.

At the top of the house, the principal bedroom sits beneath skylights, offering a more secluded feel, with built-in wardrobes and an ensuite detailed with warm bronze accents and a rain shower. A further bedroom to the rear completes the accommodation, offering flexibility and balance.

The surrounding neighbourhood offers a well-rounded mix of everyday convenience and open green space. Independent favourites such as Bloom sit close by, while a little further on, Ramble Café forms part of the characterful Winchelsea Arches, known for its growing cluster of small boutiques and studios. Long walks across Wanstead Flats can lead you towards the welcoming Golden Fleece, while Plashet Park and the shops, cafés and everyday amenities along Romford Road are both within easy reach. Families are well catered for, with a strong choice of local schools, including the outstanding Sandringham Primary School just seven minutes away.

WHAT ELSE?

Transport links are close at hand, with Woodgrange Park Station just over a ten-minute walk away. Forest Gate Station is reached in just over ten minutes by bus for Elizabeth line services, while Manor Park Station is around fifteen minutes by bus. East Ham Station is also reachable in approximately fifteen minutes, connecting to the District and Hammersmith & City lines.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"We absolutely love Forest Gate. It's a great community filled with like-minded young families who have moved here for more space but still close to the buzz.

Being in the catchment for brilliant infant schools has been a huge plus, as has the incredible proximity to green spaces like Plashet Park, West Ham Park, and Wanstead Flats.

Our local favorites, the Forest Tavern and The Holly Tree, are perfect for a weekend roast, and the transport links are unbeatable. With the Elizabeth Line at Forest Gate, the District/Hammersmith lines at Upton Park, and the 'Suffragette' line at Woodgrange Park, commuting is effortless."
