IF YOU LIVED HERE...

This lovely home offers a bright and homely feel throughout, with high ceilings, polished wooden floors, and an easy flow between spaces. The front reception is an elegant introduction, where daylight pours in through a large window, highlighting the decorative fireplace and bespoke shelving. It's a graceful room with enduring appeal, perfect for quiet evenings or relaxed gatherings. Flowing seamlessly into the second reception, the atmosphere remains luminous and cohesive, with generous proportions and plenty of space for dining or entertaining. Beyond, the kitchen combines clean lines and classic monochrome flooring, its glazed door and window drawing in sunlight and offering a pleasant connection to the garden.

Outside, a charming southwest-facing garden provides a tranquil escape, blending a soft lawn with a decked area ideal for outdoor dining or afternoon sun. Mature greenery adds a sense of calm and privacy, creating a private haven for unwinding or tending to plants.

Upstairs, two bedrooms are arranged off the landing, each offering brightness, comfort, and versatility. The principal bedroom feels especially serene, with twin windows, white walls, and natural wood floors lending an elegant simplicity. The second bedroom overlooks the garden, offering built-in storage and a tranquil outlook, ideal for guests or a home office. Completing the home, the dual-aspect bathroom is beautifully lit, with warm stone tiling, slate-toned flooring, and mosaic accents surrounding a bath and separate shower, creating a refined and restful retreat.

Set within a growing community of independent spots and green open spaces, this area combines local charm with a relaxed, creative energy. Nearby, the Winchelsea Arches are home to a cluster of much-loved neighbourhood favourites, from the artisan bakes at Wild Goose Bakery to the lively atmosphere of Joyau, the characterful Wanstead Tap, and the ever-popular Wanstead Kitchen. Giovanna's Deli & Wine presents Italian treats and a welcoming place to linger over a glass, while The Holly Tree pub provides a friendly local for good food and conversation. For outdoor pursuits, the wide, open sweep of Wanstead Flats, part of historic Epping Forest, offers acres of grassland, walking trails, and wildlife to enjoy.

WHAT ELSE?

Well connected yet pleasantly residential, the area offers easy access to central London and beyond. Wanstead Park Station is a little over ten minutes away, providing Overground services across the city, while Forest Gate Station lies just under fifteen minutes from the doorstep, linking directly to the Elizabeth line. Together they make commuting swift and simple, with excellent connections to Stratford, Liverpool Street, and the West End.
