IF YOU LIVE HERE...

This whole development has been designed with modern living in mind, so you'll soon become accustomed to little luxuries like the concierge and gym. Within the walls of your own 1600 square foot home, there's as much to appreciate, too...

Enter on the first floor and you'll find your open plan kitchen/diner, which is full of natural light and with smart engineered flooring sweeping the length. The kitchen area has glossy cabinets and contemporary appliances, so cooking will always be a pleasure. Also on this floor, you have a smart bedroom, WC and in-built storage – a real convenience, and handy for guests, too.

Head up to the second floor for two further bedrooms, which are just as smart. One has a sleek ensuite, and there's another immaculate bathroom off the spacious hallway. You also have a large reception and adjoining lounge on this floor, so you've got many opportunities to spread out as a household, as well as come together.

Up on the third floor, the roof terraces (that's right, plural) will be your favourite places for relaxing on warm days. You've got a great view of London from up there – and as they're facing both south and north, you can soak up optimum rays.

Outside, beyond your well maintained communal gardens, you have a few little hidden gems on your doorstep, from the up-and-coming community of Plaistow to the burgeoning scene around Upton Park and Forest Gate. You've also got a surprising amount of open space nearby considering all the urban buzz – you're just 0.7 miles from Central Park, while the sprawling Wanstead Flats and the iconic Docklands area are easily reachable, too.

WHAT ELSE?

-Upton Park is served by the District and Hammersmith & City lines. Travel two stops to West Ham for access to the Jubilee line and DLR, or Barking for train services to the Essex seaside.

-Your new local is Boleyn Tavern – a gloriously traditional boozer with eye-catching monochrome floors and a huge horseshoe-shaped bar. It's just a couple of minutes away on foot.

-The main thoroughfare of Barking Road has plenty of convenience stores for any last minute essentials you may need.
