IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You'd step into a home with an easy sense of flow and light. At the front, the reception room is calm and welcoming, with parquet flooring underfoot and a fireplace that gives the space real focus. It feels settled and comfortable, with enough room to properly unwind at the end of the day.

To the rear, the kitchen and dining room is a sociable, well proportioned space with a natural connection to the garden. There's room here for cooking, dining and the rhythms of daily life, while the simple finishes keep everything feeling bright and unfussy. Outside, the garden is a real highlight, beautifully landscaped with decked seating areas, lawn and established planting, giving you plenty of space for sunny afternoons, family time or a quiet morning coffee.

Upstairs, there are two comfortable double bedrooms and a third bedroom that works well as a child's room, nursery or study. The bathroom is on the first floor and finished in a clean, contemporary style. Altogether, it's a house that feels carefully looked after and easy to feel at home in from the moment you arrive.

WHAT ELSE?

Lloyd Park is just a short walk away, with its open green spaces, courts, outdoor gym, skatepark and café making it a real day to day luxury. For a weekend wander or a relaxed evening out, The Bell is nearby too, reached with a stroll through the park. You're also well placed for getting into central London, so this spot works especially well for anyone wanting a quieter residential setting without feeling cut off.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"What we have always loved about our home is the wonderful location. We spent so much time walking to Lloyd park with our young family and enjoying the easily accessible amenities. Also it's a great area for schools, daycares, meeting other young families as well as being able to get into central London easily. We liked that the garden was a good size and peaceful. It always felt like we were never in a city living there."
