You'll love the sense of space that this two-storey home provides. You're set up well with the reception room – and the open staircase really adds to the feeling of size. The kitchen is conveniently separate, with plenty of storage. The garden is south-facing, housing some glorious foliage and a seating area. It's all wonderfully secluded.

Upstairs you'll find a large, bright bedroom with a Juliet balcony, as well as a spacious and perfectly placed bathroom. If you're feeling creative, you'll have a fun time creating your mood boards and planning your dream home.

You're surrounded by nature here, with Epping Forest close by and Roding Valley Nature Reserve just minutes away.

Down in South Woodford, the local food and drink scene is thriving. Be sure to check out the new Jones & Sons, a local offshoot of the much-loved Dalston original, and don't miss the monthly farmers' market. You've also got a great selection of supermarkets, including M&S and Waitrose, plus a local cinema.

South Woodford station is just seven minutes on foot, with the Central line taking you to Liverpool Street in around 20 minutes. Drivers will also appreciate being just minutes from the North Circular.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"South Woodford was home for the first 25 years of my life. As I get older, I realise how lucky I am to have grown up here, an area with such fantastic schools, amenities, and green space. George Lane is the main hub, where you'll find the Central line station, as well as a great selection of supermarkets – M&S, Sainsburys, Waitrose and a Co-op. On top of this, is a fantastic choice of bars, pubs and restaurants, as well as an Odeon Cinema, library and gym. You really do have everything on your doorstep. Personal picks for food include the Japanese restaurant Sakura and local favourite Nino's. South Woodford boasts a great stock of Victorian/Edwardian family homes, as well as newer purpose-built blocks of flats and conversions, so attracts families and young professionals. It has great transport connections to the City and Canary Wharf, and with Epping Forest on your doorstep it's got the perfect balance of everything you need. My favourite local spots for walking are the Hollow Ponds and the tucked away Elmhurst Gardens, with its two tennis courts. All round, it's a fantastic place to call home."
