Guide price £445,000

A rare opportunity to acquire a well-presented three double bedroom family home set within the sought-after Forebury residential area. Tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac location yet positioned in the very heart of the town, the property offers an exceptional balance of peace, convenience and accessibility. The train station and the Outstanding-rated Fawbert & Barnard Infants' School are both within a five-minute walk, making this an ideal home for commuters and families alike.

The house further benefits from a private driveway and single garage with power and light, gas-fired central heating powered by a combi boiler, replacement double-glazed windows installed by the current owners and a fully boarded loft with fitted ladder offering useful additional storage. To the rear is a private garden backing directly onto a conservation area, enjoying a leafy outlook with established trees and a high degree of privacy.

The Council Tax Band is D / The EPC Rating is TBC
