GUIDE PRICE £325,000 - £335,000

This well presented mid terraced four bedroom, two bathroom home has been significantly upgraded and carefully maintained by the current owner over many years. The accommodation is both versatile and spacious, featuring a driveway and lawned front garden, a large glazed entrance porch and a full width lounge/diner ideal for family living. Further benefits include a fitted kitchen, ground floor shower room, conservatory and a ground floor bedroom created from a garage conversion, offering flexible use as a guest room or home office. Upstairs, the property provides three further good sized bedrooms along with the family bathroom. Outside, the sizeable South Easterly facing rear garden enjoys excellent privacy, with neighbouring properties set well back, allowing for an abundance of natural light. The house also benefits from gas central heating and double glazing throughout, and is situated in the popular Bridgemere area, well regarded for school catchments and its close proximity to the seafront and town centre.
