A beautifully presented and extended three bedroom detached bungalow that has undergone significant improvement by the current vendors. Enviably situated on the popular Stud Farm development near Polegate High Street with its mainline railway station the bungalow benefits from a bay windowed lounge with inset log burner and rustic mantle, a refitted bathroom, there are three double bedrooms, two of which are currently interconnecting but could be separated with minimal work. The highlight is unquestionably the glorious kitchen/dining room extension to the rear with fitted appliances and quartz worktops, a utility room and bifold doors to the garden. The rear garden is laid to lawn and a driveway to the front of the property provides access to the garage. An internal inspection comes very highly recommended.

We have tried to make sure that these particulars are accurate but, to a large extent, we have to rely on what the seller tells us about the property. Once you find the property you want to buy, you will need to carry out more investigations into the property than it is practical or reasonable for an estate agent to do when preparing sales particulars. For example, we have not carried out any kind of survey of the property to look for structural defects and would advise any homebuyer to obtain a surveyor's report before exchanging contracts. If you do not have your own surveyor, we would be pleased to recommend one. We have not checked whether any equipment in the property (such as central heating) is in working order and would advise homebuyers to check this. You should also instruct a solicitor to investigate all legal matters relating to the property (e.g. title, planning permission, etc) as these are specialist matters in which estate agents are not qualified. Your solicitor will also agree with the seller what items (e.g. carpets, curtains, etc) will be included in the sale.
