Mill House Sulby Glen, Sulby, Isle Of Man, IM7 2BB

Mill House, Sulby

A wonderful opportunity to acquire Mill House, a charming Manx stone property in the heart of Sulby, brimming with character, scope, and potential. While the property requires some investment and updating, it presents a fantastic project with the promise of an exceptional end result.

The original ground floor comprises a spacious reception hall, a cosy living room complete with the warmth and charm of a traditional burner, and a kitchen dining room that completes the original accommodation.

In addition, the property features a beautifully extended, separate living area, designed to offer modern comfort while retaining character. This impressive 34 ft kitchen dining room flows seamlessly into a snug living room, creating an ideal space for both entertaining and relaxed family life. The extension also provides a bedroom with a built-in wardrobe and en suite, perfectly suited for guest or family use.

The first floor, offering two further bedrooms and a large family bathroom, presents the opportunity to be transformed with some TLC, allowing the new owner to maximise the property's potential.

Externally, Mill House benefits from a generous garden, providing plenty of space for outdoor living, and off-road parking. The combination of traditional Manx stone, versatile accommodation, and a prime Sulby location makes this an exciting opportunity for those seeking a project that will reward with a truly stunning home.
