

41 Saddle Mews, Douglas, Isle of Man, IM2 1HZ
Asking Price £180,000

- Well-presented ground-floor purpose-built apartment
- Separate fitted kitchen
- No onward chain and conveniently located near bus routes
- Popular and well-maintained over-50s development
- Generous double bedroom with built-in wardrobes
- Spacious lounge/diner with sliding doors to south-facing terrace
- Beautifully landscaped communal gardens and residents' parking

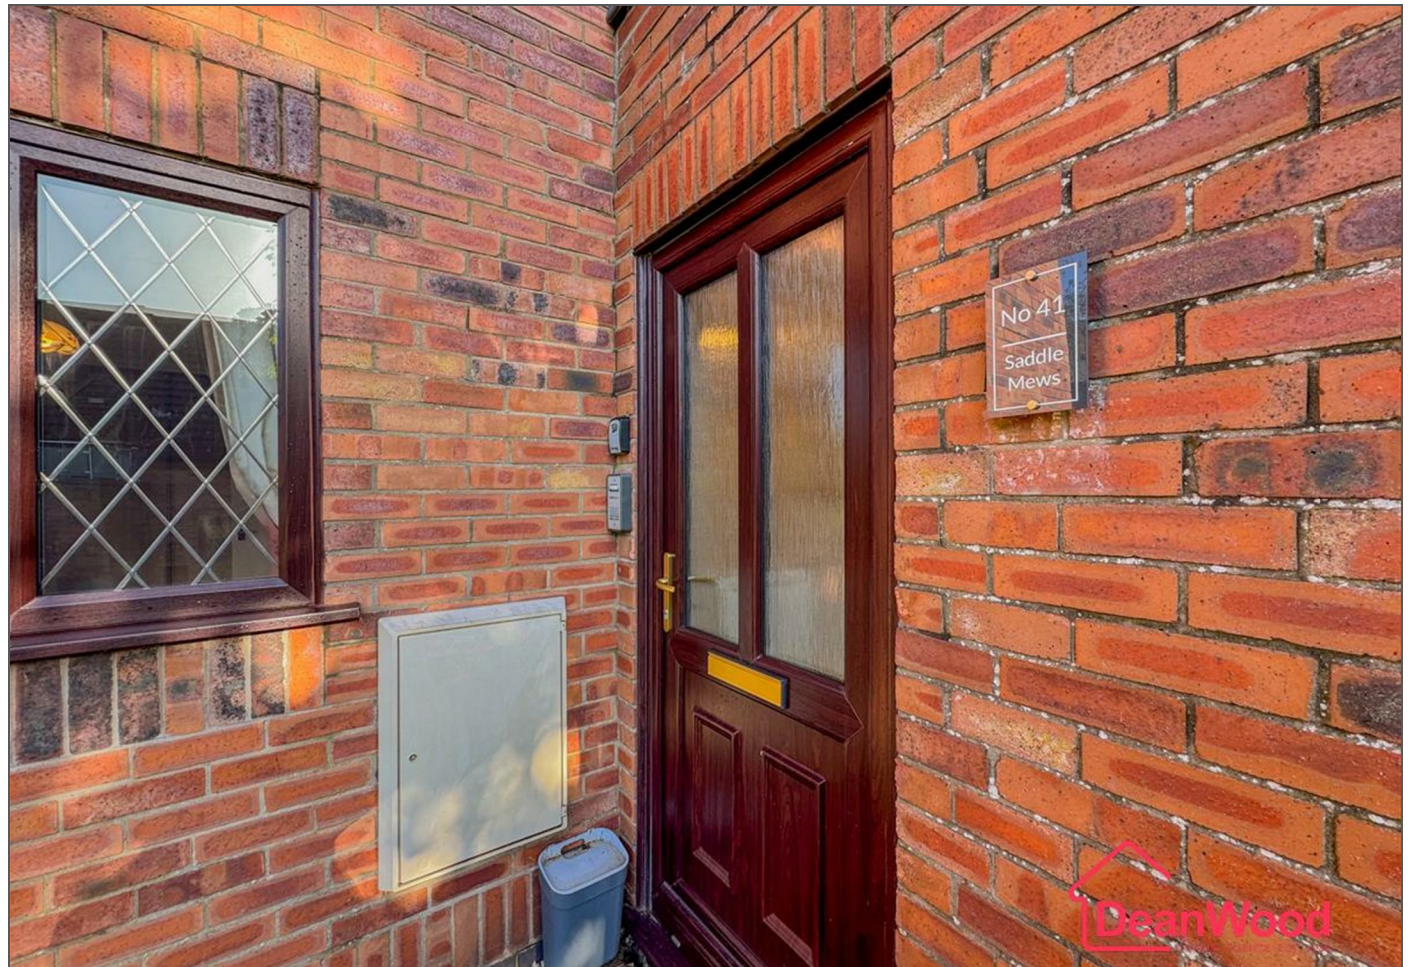

A well-presented ground-floor apartment set within a popular and well-maintained development exclusively for residents aged 50 and over. Occupying a peaceful cul-de-sac position, the property is offered for sale with no onward chain and is conveniently situated within walking distance of a regular bus service and local amenities.

The accommodation is light, spacious and thoughtfully arranged, featuring a generous lounge/diner with fully glazed sliding doors opening onto a south-facing terrace, allowing plenty of natural light to fill the room and providing an ideal spot to relax outdoors. A separate fitted kitchen offers practical workspace and storage, while the spacious double bedroom benefits from built-in wardrobes. A contemporary shower room completes the internal accommodation.

Outside, the private terrace provides an attractive area to enjoy the sunshine, complemented by beautifully maintained communal gardens that create a pleasant and peaceful setting. Communal parking is also available for both residents and visitors.

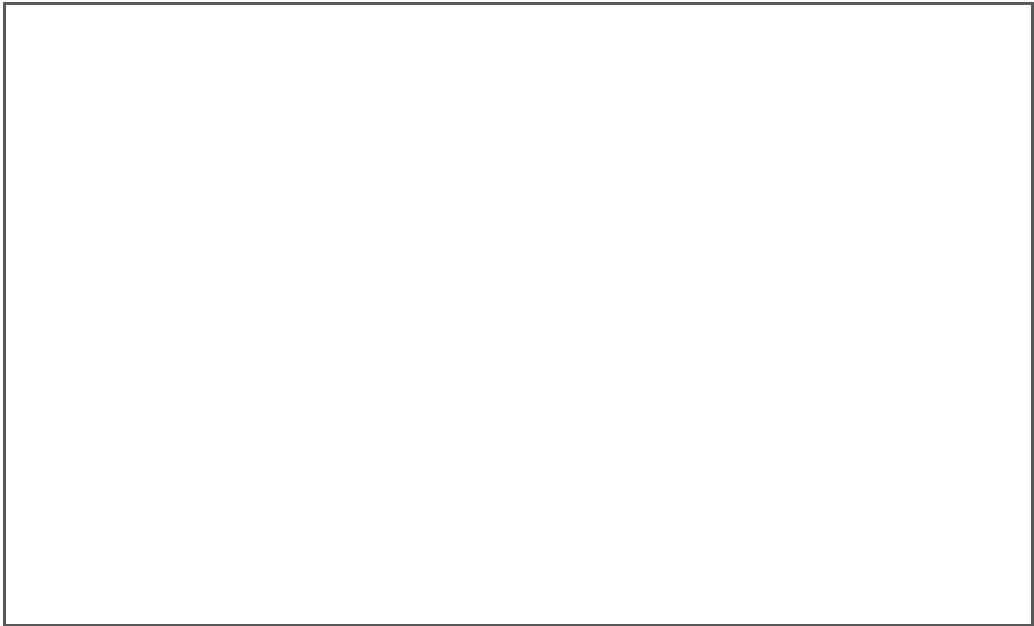

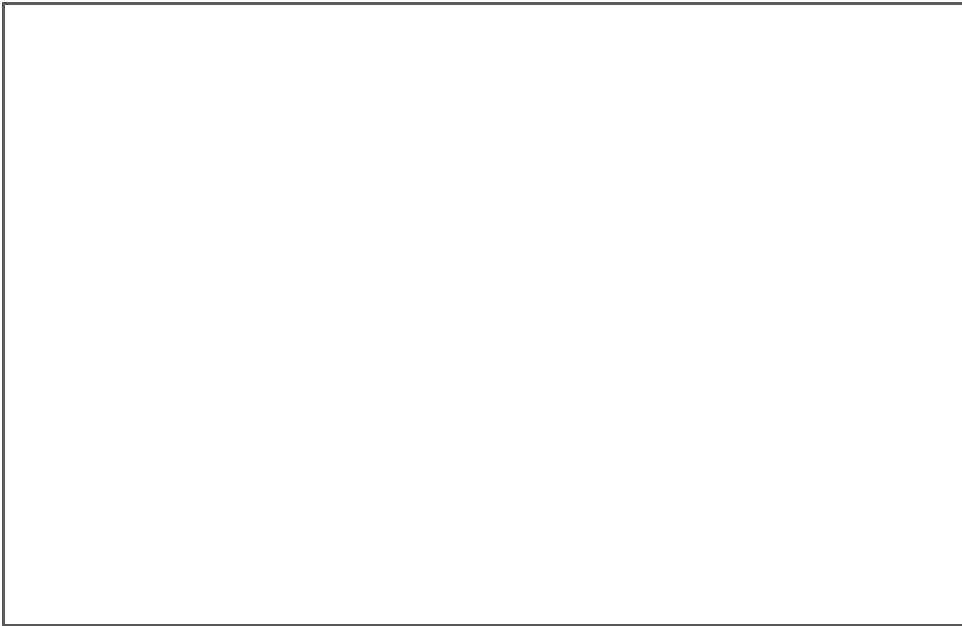

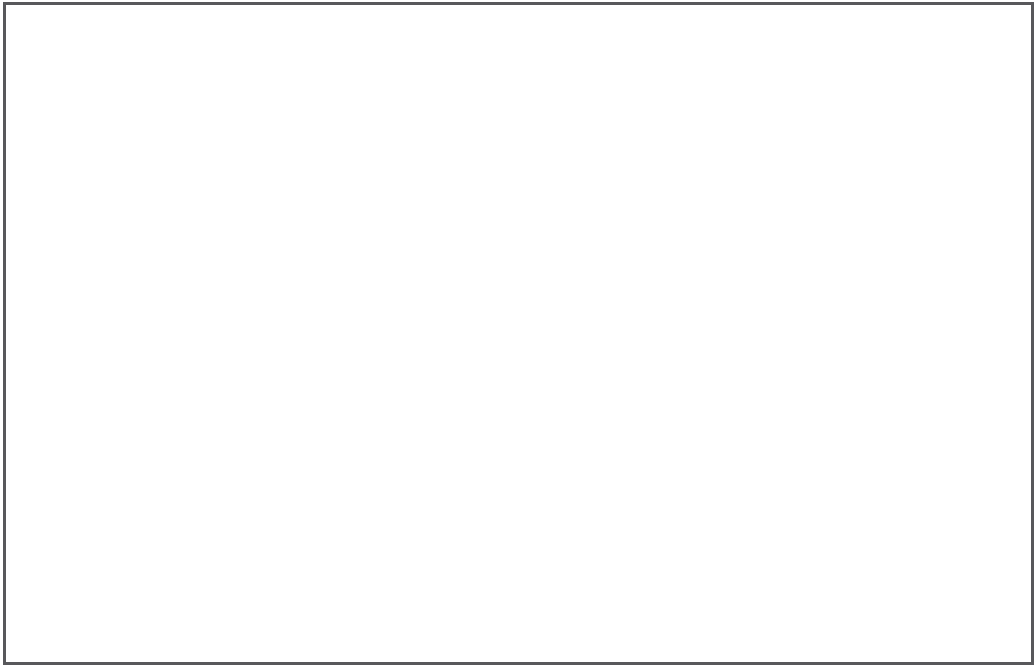

Combining comfortable, low-maintenance living with a convenient location and attractive communal surroundings, this appealing apartment would suit those seeking a relaxed lifestyle within a well-established over-50s development.
