A large and spacious detached three-bedroom bungalow, enjoying a peaceful setting with distant views across the Manx countryside. The property offers well-proportioned accommodation throughout, making it an ideal home for those seeking comfortable single-level living.

The spacious living room provides a welcoming main reception area, while the well-fitted kitchen and adjoining dining space benefit from attractive countryside views. The rear bedroom also enjoys these lovely outlooks, providing a pleasant and private aspect.

There are two generous double bedrooms, both featuring fitted wardrobe storage, together with a further single bedroom offering flexibility for use as a study, nursery or occasional bedroom. The accommodation is completed by a large family bathroom and a separate WC, along with a useful utility room.

Externally, the property is surrounded by beautifully maintained gardens to both the front and rear. The south-facing front garden features raised beds and established planting, while the rear garden offers excellent privacy and space to relax or entertain.

Further benefits include useful garaging, ample off-street parking, gas-fired central heating and double glazing. This spacious bungalow combines generous accommodation, attractive gardens, countryside views and practical amenities in a desirable setting.
