Set in a wonderfully private and sheltered position just moments from the coastline, Grianane is a distinctive and highly appealing family home that combines the tranquillity of a secluded setting with the rare convenience of having the beach almost on the doorstep.

The property is positioned approximately 30 seconds from the beach, yet its tucked-away orientation provides a surprising degree of privacy and shelter from the prevailing coastal weather. Its particularly sheltered position makes Grianane an unusually windstill property for a home so close to the coast — a rare and highly desirable quality for a beachside property. This is a home that genuinely makes the most of its seaside setting without compromising on comfort.

One of Grianane's most compelling features is its sun-drenched frontage, which enjoys lovely sea views and creates an exceptional outdoor space for relaxing.

Inside, the house has been recently redecorated throughout, creating a fresh and inviting environment with a comfortable, contemporary feel. The accommodation is thoughtfully arranged for family life, with a spacious living room, separate dining area, well-proportioned kitchen and the added convenience of a dedicated utility room.

Upstairs, the property currently offers three bedrooms alongside a versatile office/bedroom, making it particularly adaptable to the needs of a growing family. There is excellent scope to undertake a straightforward reconfiguration to create a genuine four-bedroom layout, further enhancing the property's appeal.

The generous driveway provides parking for approximately six vehicles, while a generous garage offers secure parking, workshop potential or additional storage. Above, a fully boarded loft provides yet more valuable storage space.

Grianane is offered with vacant possession and no onward chain, and represents a rare opportunity to acquire a well-presented, highly adaptable and exceptionally sheltered family home in Laxey, just moments from the beach.
