Tucked away in a peaceful setting, this attractive two-bedroom over 55's bungalow provides a perfect balance of tranquillity and convenience.

Behind its welcoming porch and entrance hall lies a spacious living room with a feature fireplace and access to a private patio and well-kept communal gardens. To the front, a fitted kitchen including an integrated fridge-freezer, extractor fan, oven and hob, and soft-closing cabinets and drawers.

The main bedroom benefits from a wide range of fitted wardrobes and drawers, while the second bedroom provides flexibility as a guest room, study, or dining area. A shower room includes a mounted shower seat and safety handle for added comfort and accessibility.

Allocated parking for one vehicle is available to the front.

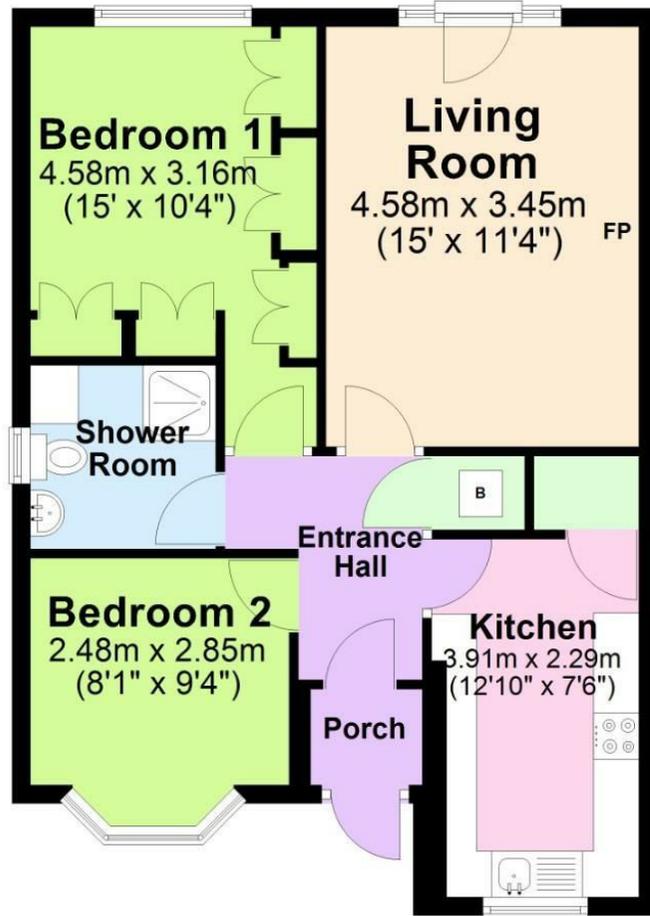

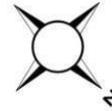

This property enjoys a convenient village location with good local amenities. Measham Church of England Primary School is nearby, and the village offers shops, cafés, and everyday services along the High Street.

There's also a local leisure centre and easy access to open countryside. Transport links are good, with regular bus routes and quick road access to Swadlincote and the A42 for commuting to Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Tamworth, and beyond.
