Guide Price £230,000 - £240,000

This well presented three-bedroom detached home is set at the end of a peaceful cul-de-sac and enjoys the benefit of a south-facing garden.

Upon entering through the property's entrance hall, you are welcomed into a well-proportioned living room featuring exposed wooden beams, a fireplace that serves as an inviting focal point, and a bright bay window that fills the space with natural light.

Continuing toward the rear, the kitchen offers an excellent range of wooden cabinetry and ample worktop space, complete with an integrated four-ring gas hob and oven. Included in this sale is also the dishwasher, washing machine, integrated fridge and freezer.

Adjoining the kitchen is a light and airy conservatory, providing an ideal additional living area with double doors opening directly into the private south-facing garden. The garden itself includes a slabbed patio for outdoor dining, a neatly maintained lawn, and an attractive selection of surrounding plants that add colour and depth throughout the seasons.

Upstairs, you will find two double bedrooms, both featuring integrated wardrobes, along with a well-sized single bedroom. A modern shower room completes the first floor.

To the front, mature planting mirrors the garden's rear design, all set against a high boundary wall that enhances both privacy and character. This property offers a welcoming layout, thoughtful features, providing a tranquil setting in Ashby-De-La-Zouch.

This property is conveniently placed for everyday amenities while enjoying a quiet residential setting. The property sits close to well-regarded schools, including Ashby-de-la-Zouch Church of England Primary School, Ashby Hill Top Primary School, Ivanhoe School and Ashby School, making it ideal for families. Ashby's town centre is only a short distance away, offering shops, cafés, supermarkets and essential services. Local leisure facilities, green spaces and the town's historic character add to the appeal.
