Griffydam is a hamlet within the parish of Worthington, Leicestershire. The name 'Griffydam' occurs as early as 1764, when it is referred to as being noted for its mineral water. The placename actually derives from 'Griffith's-Dam'. A man-made pond and remnants of the bank built for this dam can still be seen, below the lane called 'The Tentas'.

Top Chapel House was one of the earliest Methodist Churches in England, built in 1778. The village of Griffydam has its own Primary School and is within easy access of Birmingham, Nottingham and East Midlands Airport via the M42/M1/M6 road network. The historic market town of Ashby-de-Zouch is close by with its renowned Secondary Schools, amenities, independent shops, restaurants and bars.
