Guide Price £250,000 to £260,000 - No Upward Chain

A well presented three bedroom semi detached home situated in a quiet residential area within walking distance of the market town of Ashby-de-la-Zouch. Perfect for a first time buyer or potential buy to let.

Entering through the porch there is a door into the large open plan living/dining room with feature fireplace and a patio door to the patio area and privater garden giving a lovely feeling of space. The lounge leads through to the modern kitchen, fitted with a range of wall and floor units, with built in appliances including an oven, hob and extractor with space for a free standing appliance. A further door gives access to the rear garden.

Open plan stairs in the living room lead up to the first floor whee there are two double bedrooms and further good sized single bedroom. A three piece bathroom with shower completes.

The property benefits from an attached single garage and driveway. The rear garden is south east facing and backs onto a park area.

Within a 10/15 minute walk to Ashby with local amenities including a range of shops and cafes. The village of Packington is within walking distance with access to National Forest walks.

The property is ready to move into with carpets and blinds throughout and has been redecorated.
