Royston & Lund are delighted to present this two bedroom semi-detach bungalow. A front porch leads into the bright living room, enhanced by a bay window and a electric fireplace. The kitchen, fitted with classic wooden cabinetry, provides ample storage and workspace.

The bedroom is quietly positioned to the rear of the home and benefits from integrated storage, while the centrally located bathroom includes a shower-over-bath combination.

A rear porch with sliding patio doors opens directly onto the communal garden, creating a pleasant spot to enjoy the outdoors. To the front, the property offers off-road parking for up to three vehicles. There are also emergency pull-chords throughout.

Gardens Court in West Bridgford, Nottingham, is a retirement housing development designed for residents aged 60 and over. It consists of 34 bungalows, some of which are built to mobility standards, and is supported by a warden or manager alongside an emergency CareLine alarm system. Residents benefit from a range of shared facilities, including a welcoming lounge, landscaped communal gardens, laundry amenities, and a community centre that hosts regular social activities such as coffee mornings, lunch clubs, and outings.

The location is particularly convenient, with everyday essentials close at hand. Shops, cafés, and other retail outlets are within walking distance, while a post office can be found just a short stroll away. Medical needs are well catered for, with a GP surgery located less than a mile from the development. Public transport links are also easily accessible, with bus stops around half a mile from the property, making it simple to reach Nottingham city centre or other parts of West Bridgford. Overall, Gardens Court offers a blend of practical amenities, social opportunities, and a well-connected setting, making it a desirable place to live.
