This attractive three-bedroom detached bungalow offers flexible and modern living in a well-designed layout. At its heart is a spacious open-plan living and dining area, filled with natural light and opening through patio doors onto the rear garden—perfect for entertaining or relaxing.

The adjoining kitchen features sleek, neutral units, a gas hob, an electric oven and an extractor fan, combining style with practicality. Also on the ground floor is a versatile bedroom that could double as a home office, alongside a neatly finished bathroom for added convenience.

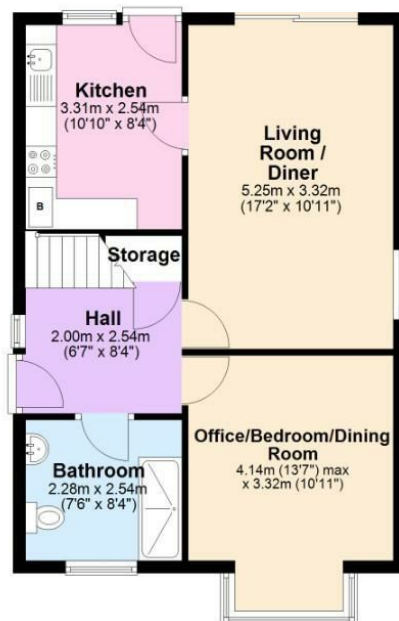

Upstairs, there are two bright double bedrooms with Velux windows, one of which includes fitted wardrobes. Additional storage is available on the landing and beneath the stairs, helping to keep the space tidy and efficient.

Outside, the generous garden provides ample space for outdoor enjoyment, with patio doors connecting it seamlessly to the living area. A detached garage adds secure parking or useful storage, whilst the drive can accommodate parking for one car, completing this well-rounded and inviting home.

The property is situated in a sought-after area which benefits from an excellent mix of local amenities. At its centre is Central Avenue with a variety of independent cafés, restaurants, and high-street shops. The area is also known for its strong sporting scene. You're close to Trent Bridge cricket ground, Nottingham Forest's City Ground, and the National Watersports Centre at Holme Pierrepont.

There are plenty of green spaces including Bridgford Park, The Hook nature reserve, and Rushcliffe Country Park. Transport links are excellent, with regular buses into Nottingham city centre, good road connections, and easy access to the train station and universities. West Bridgford also has a strong community feel, with local markets, events, making this area in high demand for families, professionals, and downsizers alike.
