This well-presented three bedroom detached bungalow in Bootle enjoys a highly desirable location within easy walking distance of the beach and close to Bootle station, making it ideal for those seeking a coastal lifestyle with good accessibility. The property benefits from UPVC double glazing, most of which has been installed within the last five years, along with a multi-fuel log burner in the living room, creating a warm and inviting space. The kitchen is well equipped with a double oven, electric hob, and dishwasher, while large doors open out onto the patio, providing a bright and sociable indoor-outdoor living area.

A particular feature of the property is the versatile additional space offered by the garage areas, currently arranged as a snooker room and bar area, garage, and storage, offering excellent potential to be converted into a self-contained annex, subject to the appropriate works and building regulations. There is also a generous attic space, which houses the boiler.

Externally, the property offers ample off-road parking and sits within a generous, well-established garden that is both attractive and highly productive. The garden includes a wide selection of fruit trees, including apple, pear,

This beautiful bungalow provides a unique and rare opportunity to purchase a stunning house with spectacular views. The property is approached via a gated entrance from the main road, opening onto a large driveway that provides ample off-road parking, along with access to a garage featuring two electric roller doors. Two UPVC doors lead into the property—one opening into an inner hallway and the other into the main hallway, which provides access to all principal living spaces.

The living room is a welcoming and well-proportioned space, featuring an attractive multi-fuel burner with a slate surround and a large window that enjoys spectacular sea views. The kitchen/dining room is fitted with a range of base and wall units and includes the integrated appliances as previously mentioned, with bi-fold doors leading directly out to the rear garden, ideal for everyday living and entertaining. The views from the kitchen stretch towards the mountains.

An additional inner hallway serves as a practical utility or boot room, with access through to the garage area neatly converted into a snooker room and a conveniently located WC. The accommodation is completed by three double bedrooms and a family bathroom, which is fitted with a shower cubicle, bath, WC, and vanity unit.

Externally, the property continues to impress with a generous rear garden featuring a designated hot tub area, a productive garden plot, and a combination of lawned and patio spaces, offering plenty of scope for relaxation and outdoor enjoyment.

We are local, family run business who are wholly independent which means we can recommend services to most suit your needs. Our aim is to provide quality advice and expertise at all times, so you can make an informed decision whether buying or selling.

Estate agents are required by law to check a buyers /sellers identity to prevent Money Laundering and fraud. You do have to produce documents to prove your identity or address and information on your source of funds. Checking this information is a legal requirement to help safeguard your transaction, and failing to provide ID could cause delays. Corrie and Co, outsource these checks to speed up the process. The company does charge for such checks, please ask for more information and guidance on associated costs.

To ensure your move is stress free, we can help with Mortgage advice. We work alongside local Solicitors, offering competitive conveyancing services. Ask for further information.
