

The Hurst Ulverston LA12 0RP

Offers In The Region Of £875,000

A rare opportunity to acquire this striking detached period residence, set within a rural yet accessible location offering charm, space, and versatility in abundance. This impressive home boasts extensive and characterful accommodation, surrounded by mature gardens with lovely open outlooks. Retaining a wealth of original period features, the property combines traditional elegance with comfortable family living. Included in the sale is an attached two-bedroom cottage, perfect for extended family, guests, or holiday letting, as well as a self-contained barn offering further potential—whether for business use, a studio, or additional accommodation (subject to relevant consents). A truly unique and flexible property in a picturesque setting. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the scale, character, and potential on offer.

Approach

An imposing approach sets the tone, with a gravel driveway leading up to the property and offering ample parking. A striking open porch, framed by a stone arch, welcomes you in, with grey sandstone flagged flooring underfoot.

Entrance Hall 17'0" x 10'2"

A truly stunning welcome awaits as you step into the entrance hall, featuring a dramatic galleried landing and exposed ceiling beams that showcase the home's character and grandeur. A beautifully crafted mahogany spindled staircase sweeps upward, creating an elegant focal point and setting the tone for the rest of this exceptional period property.

Lounge 20'0" x 16'0"

An impressive and elegant space with a bronze cast fire surround, tiled inset and hearth, and a brass fender framing the open fire recess—ideal for cosy evenings. With an imposing ceiling height of 3 metres, the room is further enhanced by decorative cornicing, deeper skirting boards, and a large window that floods the space with natural light while offering lovely outlooks over the garden and towards Kirkby Moor.

Living Room 19'8" x 16'0"

An inviting reception room featuring a deep bay window that frames delightful views of the side garden and floods the space with natural light. The focal point is a striking white marble fire surround with a blue slate inset and hearth, housing an open fire recess—perfect for relaxed evenings. Finished with classic cornicing and rich 'Oxford Blue' décor, the room blends period charm with contemporary flair.

Dining Room 17'0" x 16'4"

A characterful and atmospheric space, ideal for formal dining or relaxed family gatherings. Two leaded glazed windows overlook the side courtyard, allowing for natural light while retaining privacy. A standout feature is the sandstone inglenook fireplace with a blue slate hearth, housing a black cast iron freestanding multi-fuel stove—adding both warmth and a rustic charm. The room also boasts an open alcove recess and a traditional servant bell panel, nodding to the property's period heritage.

Kitchen 17'0" x 11'9"

A well-appointed and characterful kitchen, blending modern practicality with timeless style. Fitted with a generous range of shaker-style cream base and wall units complemented by blue slate work surfaces and classic knob handles. The twin Belfast sinks with chrome mixer taps enhance the traditional feel. A stainless steel electric Range Cooker with hotplate sits within an impressive sandstone surround, providing a charming focal point. There's ample space for a freestanding fridge freezer, dishwasher, and a central dining table—ideal for family meals or casual entertaining. Finished with rustic quarry tiled flooring, adding warmth and durability to the space.

Utility Room 9'10" x 8'10"

A practical yet characterful space with a door leading to the rear aspect, perfect for everyday access. Fitted with slate work surfaces and a classic white Belfast sink, the room retains a traditional feel. There is a period range of built-in pine base and wall cupboards and drawers, offering excellent storage. The slate tiled floor adds to the durability and complements the rustic aesthetic of the property.

Cellar Room One 30'6" x 24'11"

A useful space with a ceiling height of 2.10m and a blue slate flagged floor, enhancing its traditional charm. Equipped with power points and lighting, it offers practical functionality. Features include a cold slab, ideal for storage, and a smoke alarm for added safety. An open doorway leads through to an additional cellar room, providing further versatile storage or potential use.

Cellar Room Two 15'8" x 9'2"

Ground Floor Shower Room 9'6" x 4'3"

Fitted with a modern three-piece suite in white, including a low-level dual flush WC and a 'D'-shaped vanity basin with pedestal and mixer tap. The walk-in shower features a glazed upright panel and a Triton electric shower, complemented by white brick recess tiling with retro grey grout. The floor is finished with stylish ceramic tiles.

Galleried Landing 24'7" x 13'9"

A magnificent spindled staircase rises gracefully from the side of the entrance hall, creating a striking focal point. It leads to a galleried first floor landing, enhancing the sense of space and grandeur while showcasing the home's period elegance. A feature window to the front offers distant views of The Hoad, while a skylight pane and vaulted ceiling with exposed timber beams add light and architectural interest to the space.
