Three-bedroom mid-terrace property situated in a convenient location close to a wide range of local amenities. The home features neutral décor throughout, providing a blank canvas for buyers to personalise. Externally, there is a yard to the rear offering useful outdoor space. An ideal purchase for a variety of buyers including first-time buyers, families, or investors seeking a well-located property.

Entering the property from the front, you arrive directly into the lounge, a spacious reception room positioned at the front of the house. A bay-style window provides natural light, making it a comfortable living area suitable for sofas and entertainment furniture.

Moving through a doorway toward the rear of the property, you enter the dining room. This room sits centrally within the ground floor and serves as a natural transition between the living area and the kitchen. It offers enough space for a dining table and chairs, making it ideal for everyday meals or entertaining guests. Continuing toward the back, you reach the kitchen. The kitchen is arranged along the right-hand side wall with workspace for cooking and food preparation. Adjacent to the kitchen is a ground-floor bathroom, equipped with a bath, sink, and toilet. At the very rear of the ground floor, a door leads to a store room, providing useful storage space for household items, pantry supplies, or cleaning equipment. Near the dining room area is the staircase leading to the first floor.

At the top of the stairs, a small landing connects all three bedrooms and the upstairs bathroom. To the rear of the property is the first bedroom, which is well-sized and located next to the family bathroom on this level. The bathroom contains a bath, toilet, and sink. Moving along the landing, the second bedroom sits in the middle of the floor. This room could function as a guest bedroom, children's room, or home office. At the front of the property is the third bedroom, the largest of the three, benefiting from a large window that allows plenty of natural light.
